"Born Free
as free as the wind blows . . .

Words composed by-
Don Black

. . . as free as the grass grows,

. . . Born Free to follow your heart . . .

Live Free,
and beauty
surrounds you,
the world still astounds you,
each time you look at a star

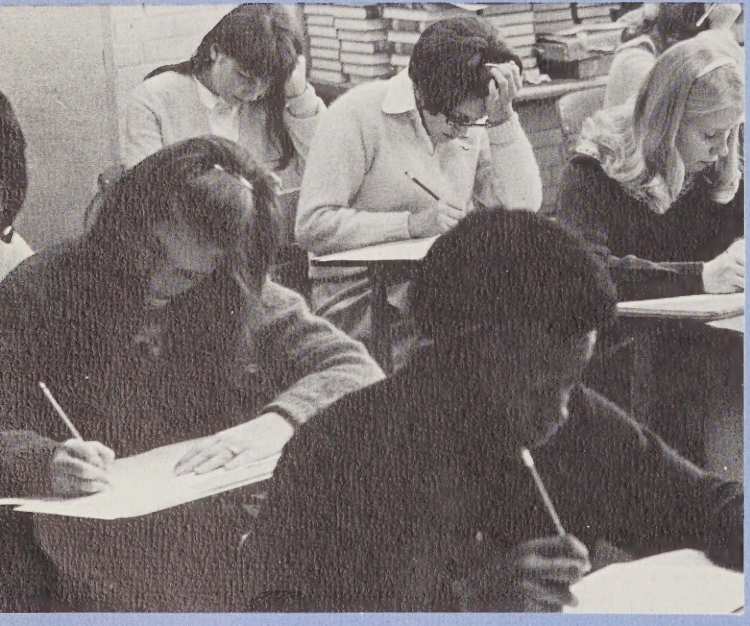
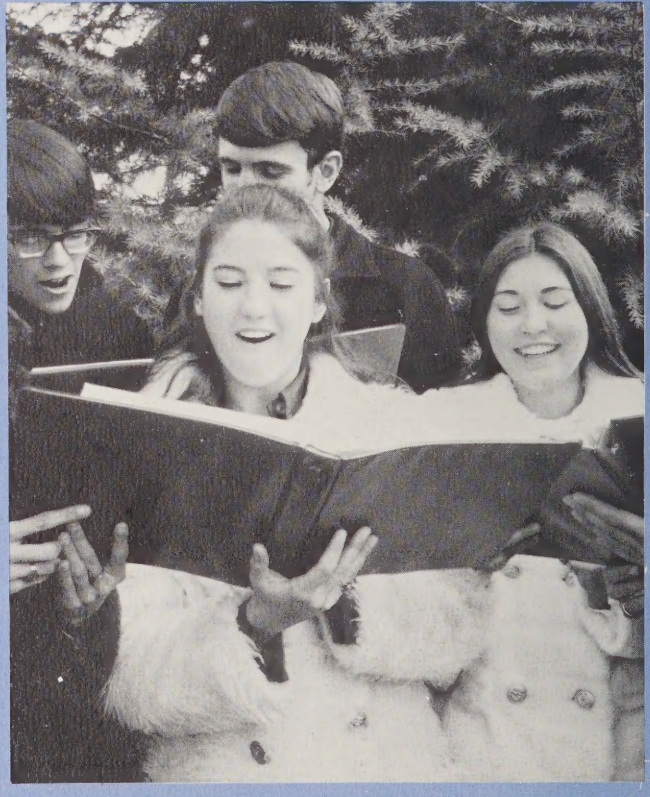
Stay Free

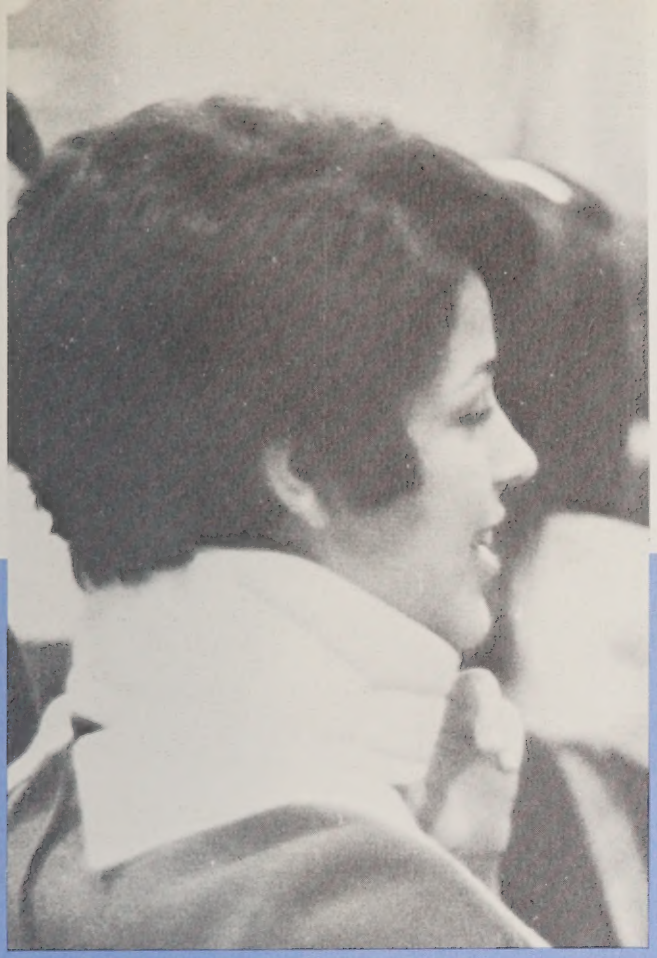
where no walls divide you . . .

. . . you're free as the roaring tide . . .

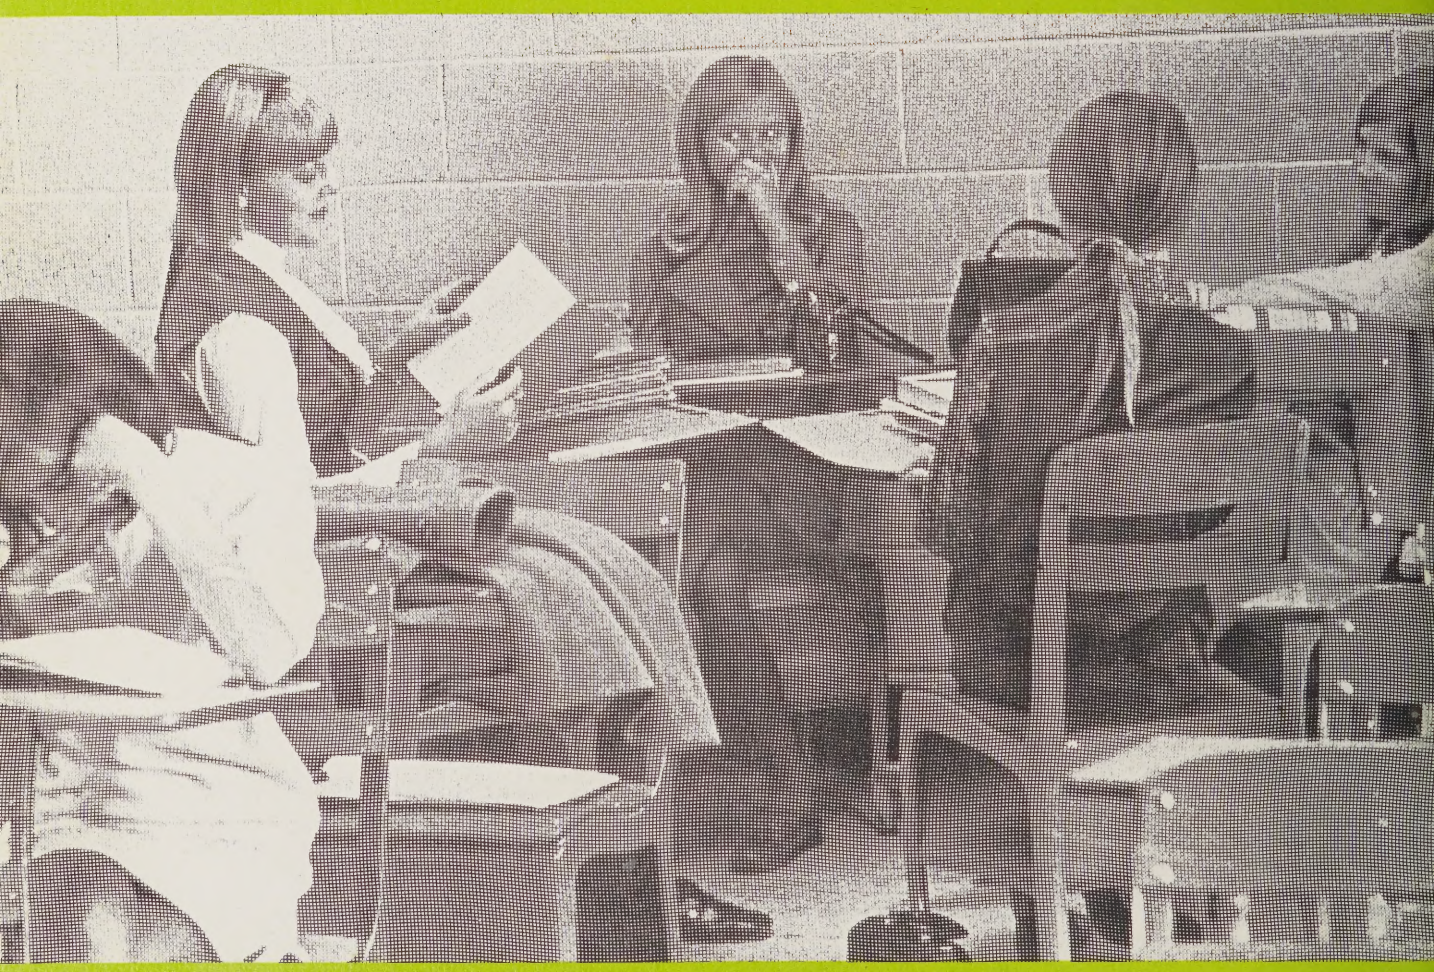
. . . so there's no need to hide . . .







ENTRAL



Born Free
and life is worth living

but only worth living cause you're—

Born Free!"

Dedication

. . . and life is worth living

During the span of a student's school years, many teachers try to impress him. Different teachers try various methods of presenting knowledge to him in order to entice him to learn. However, very few ever succeed in making a lasting impression. Such a teacher is unique.

Central is fortunate in having such a unique teacher. Mrs. Jane Bennett is the most versatile of teachers. She has been able to reach many students in the several areas of the humanities in which she instructs. For these many contributions, we, the Senior Class, dedicate the 1970 Spartan to Mrs. Jane Bennett.

Mrs. Bennett coached the Senior team for the powder-puff football game.

Any art teacher can tell you that keeping the room clean is no easy job.

1. As an English teacher, Mrs. B. is a real ham–take for instance the time Nancy broke her neck and Mrs. B. tried on the brace for size. 2. Coffee break is a favorite time. 3. She is always ready to listen and willing to work.

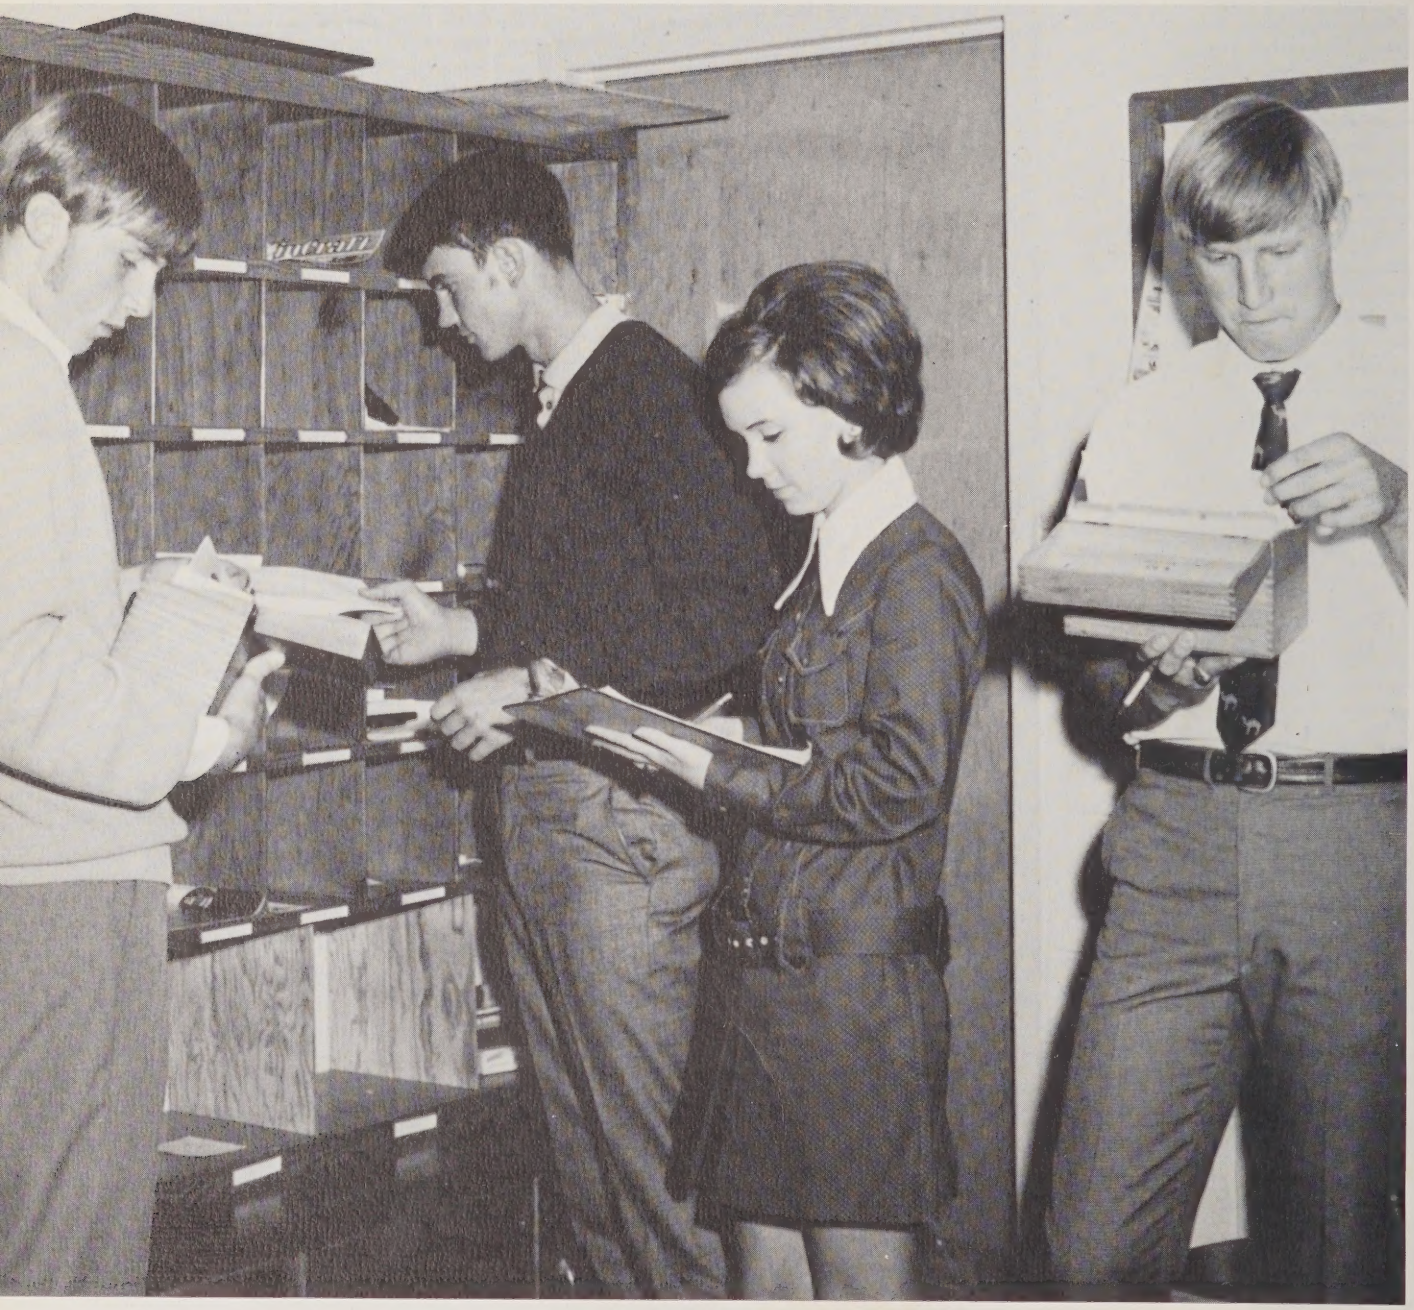
Seniors discover . . . "life is worth living"

As the Seniors began their last year in high school, they turned their eyes to the future realizing the value of being born in a free America. Theirs was the choice of working or continuing their education in a chosen field of interest.

Through the classes and activities each Senior has taken part in during his high school career, he has learned to accept the responsibilities that accompany freedom.



Senior class officers are Danny Smith, Representative; Randy Crotts, President; Donna Meredith, Secretary; Bruce Kirk, Vice President.

Class of 70

Early in the year the Junior class was called together to discuss a very important money-matter. Not just money for the mercenary sake, but for the funds to finance the Junior-Senior Prom in the spring. The Junior class may be proud of their profitable magazine sale for that purpose.

That was not the only purpose for which Juniors have assembled. They have been subjected to programs of mass listing forms of PSAT and achievements tests.

All this constitutes work and, as everyone knows, "all work and no play makes Juniors dull people." Therefore, participation in organized sports clubs, societies and just good-natured fun complemented the personalities of a well-rounded Junior class.

Class of '72

Second year students take on

Since sophomores had already found their "thing" at Central, they were ready to concern themselves with the more important matters of life such as dating, sports, and drivers' licenses.

Seriously, most sophomores assumed their due responsibility and were productive and useful citizens of the Central community. They filled positions in student government, on junior varsity and varsity teams, as well as places in the classroom. These activities occupied the sophomores until they took the big step into the ranks of upperclassmen.

Sophomores are lead into new studies, such as horticulture, by their officers: Janet Crissman, secretary-treasurer; Greg Younts, vice-president; Dare Hunt, class representative, and Tony Conrad, president.

Newcomers get into the full swing

Confused freshmen were in an all new world of wonderment at C.H.S. this year. The freshmen class was the largest that has entered Central. They proved to be a very active class in sports and other activities. There are great hopes for this class in the future, scholastically, as well as in school activities.

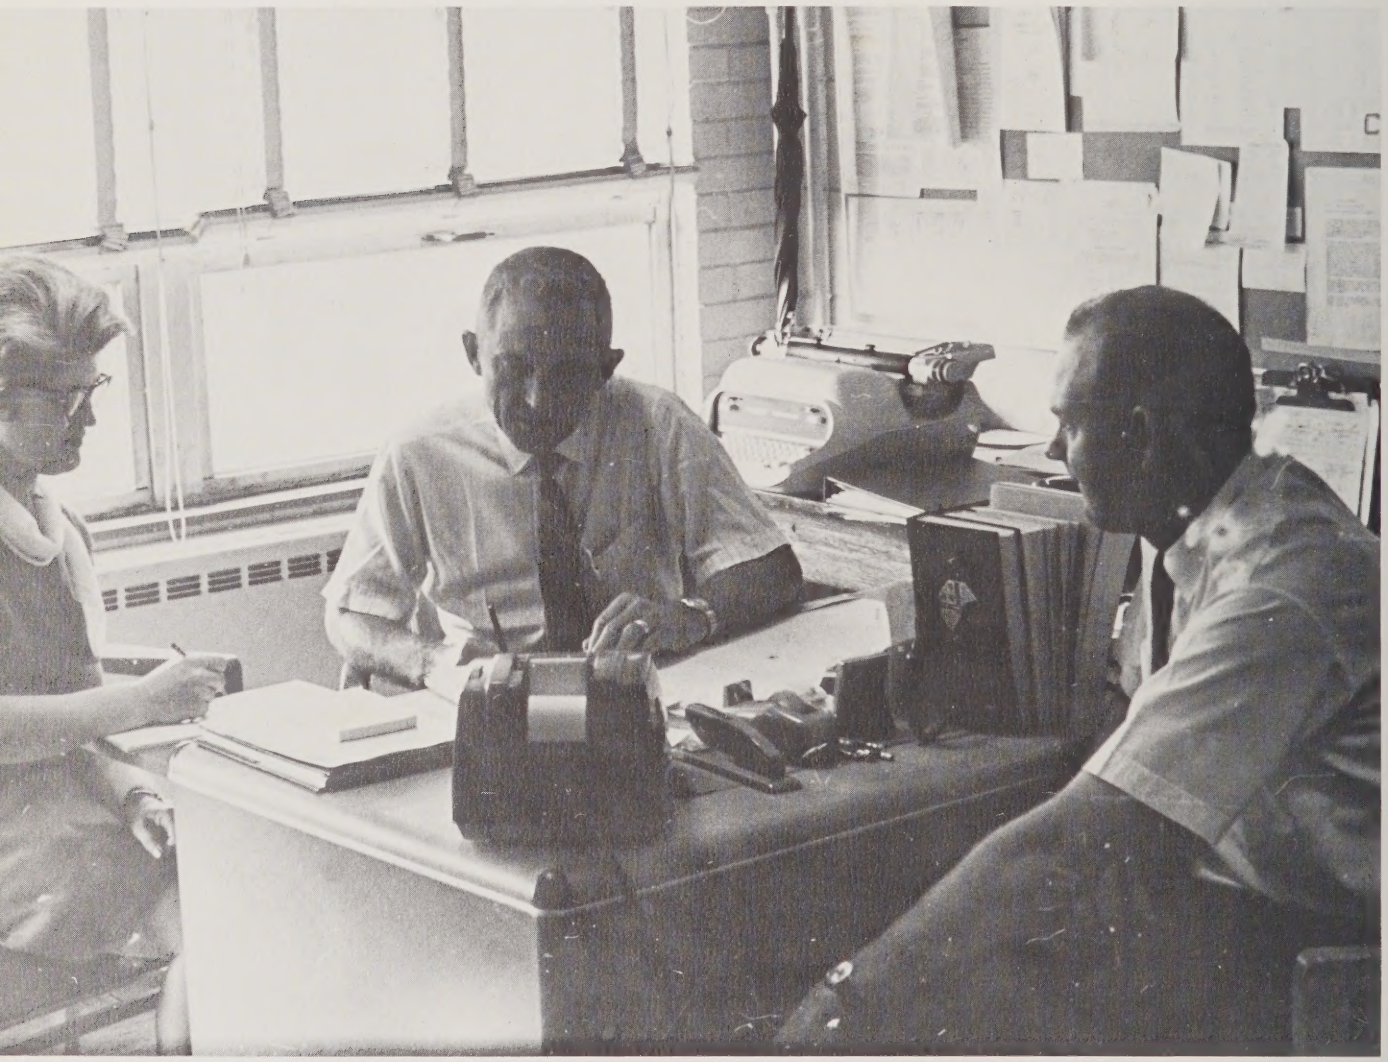
Administration provides experienced leadership

It is difficult to believe that three people are directly responsible for the smooth operation of CHS. Although their presence makes life at Central continue at a more even keel, they are willing to help students with any problem at all times. Sometimes one does not realize the many services performed by Mr. Young, Mr. Swicegood, and Mrs. Michael.



Mrs. Michael takes notes as Mr. Young and Mr. Swicegood discuss the setting up of the Student-Faculty Committee.

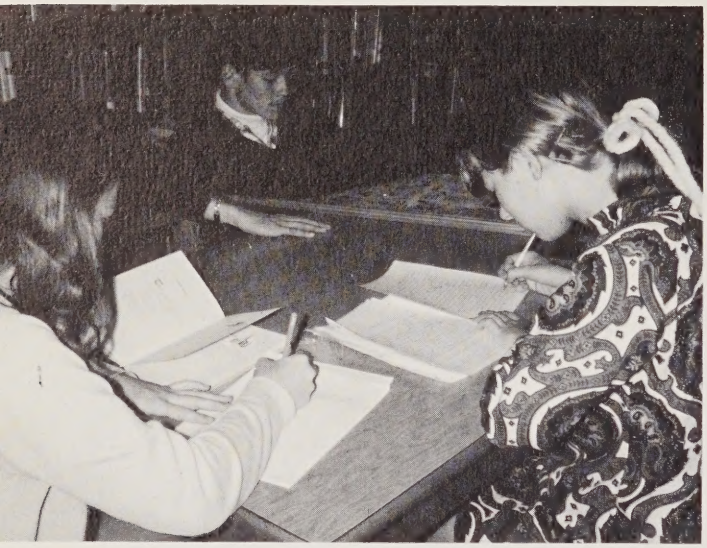
Guidance and Library Dept.

Advice—we need a lot of it

Despite the fact that the Guidance Department and Library cannot be classified under the traditional categories of reading, writing, and arithmetic, they are instrumental in the machinery of Central High.

Debbie White and Charles Sexton do research in the library, while Kathy Wilson reads up on current affairs in the newspaper.



Last minute instructions for the operation of the library are given to the library assistants; Wanda Moretz, Franklin Hogan, Ronnie Kiger, Gloria Warner, Patty Winston, Marcia Mello, and Sandra Rimer.

Keith Bentley uses the Guidance Office as a testing center for Career Aptitude.

Drama students find new experience in English

Drama students perform exercises which enable them to relax.

English is the subject that ties all of the Spartans together. Everyone takes the required grammar and literature. Many students were involved in drama and journalism. Practical English, the newest addition to the English department, catered to students in the Vocational curriculum by instructing them in practical uses of language.

Languages and Special Education Dept.

New class is added to CHS

Although small, the Department of Foreign Language filled the current need of the students of Central High. Teacher's enthusiasm aided greatly to the interest shown by students in these subjects.

1. Visual aids, such as bulletin boards, stimulate the desire for comprehension in Spanish.
2. Small classes are the key to the success of Special Education.

Another new department at Central was the Special Education Department. This was designed for the students who would benefit most from small classes. The addition enabled Central to acquire a new mobile classroom.

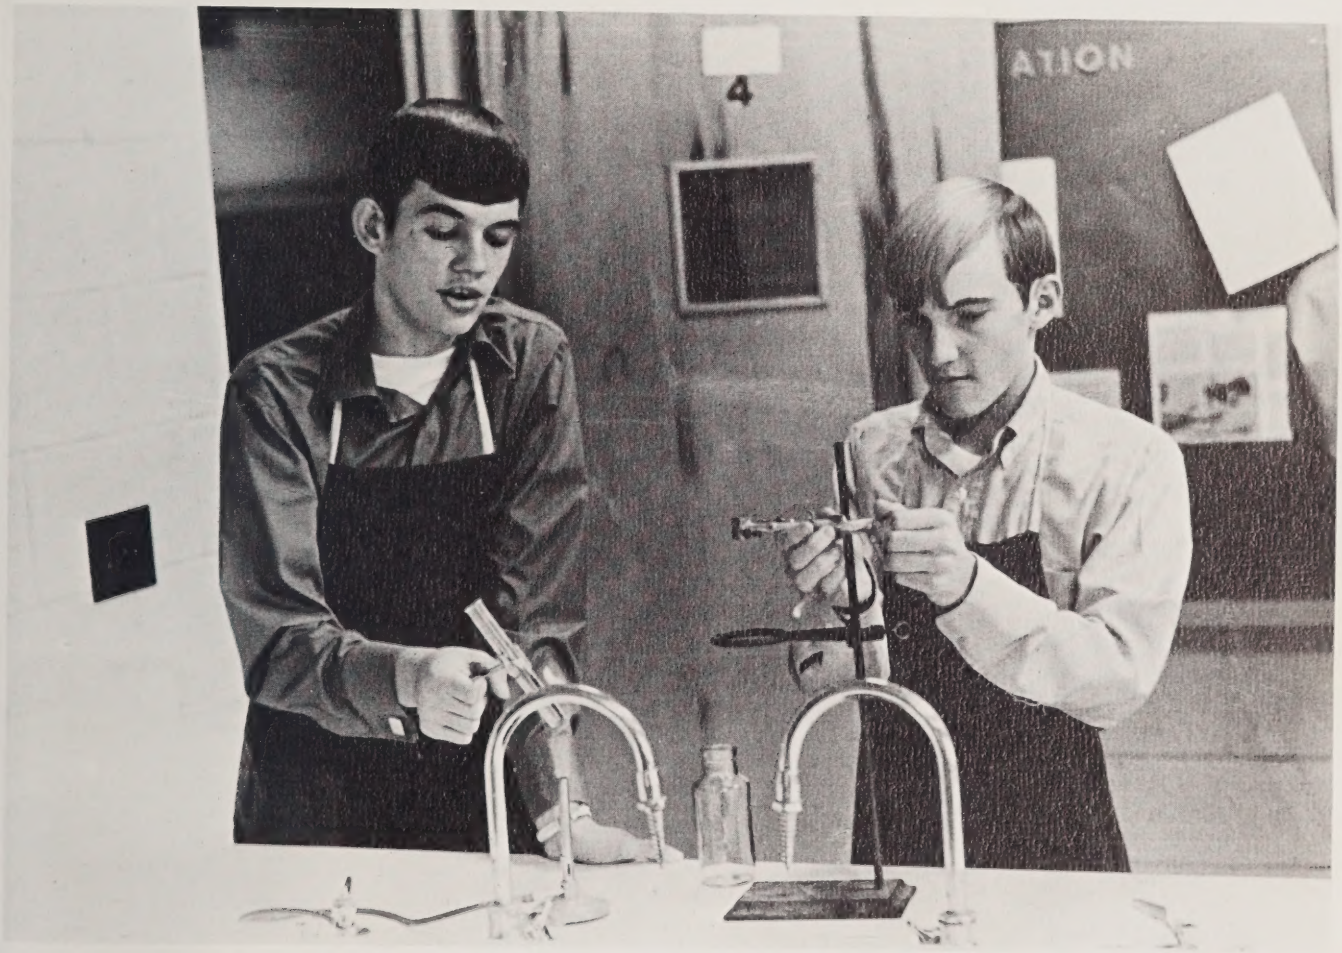
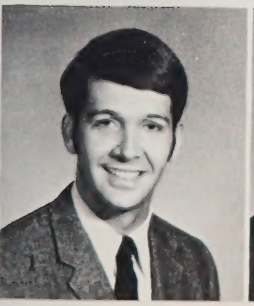
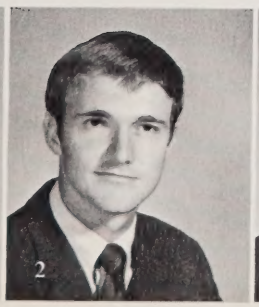
1970—The year of discovery

A total overhaul is going to take place within the Science Department during the span of the next few years. The change began this year and has shown signs of becoming a great success. For the first step, Biology I was offered to a limited number of freshmen. This will allow Chemistry I and Modern Physics to be completed a year earlier, thus making way for Advanced Science in the Senior year.

Ronald Hughes and Howard Keziah work together to complete an experiment in the chemistry laboratory.







1. Mr. Robert Holcombe: U.N.C.–Chapel Hill, Physical Science, Biology. 2. Mr. Bill Scott: Appalachian State University; Biology, Health, and Physical Education. 3. Mr. Jerry Hampton: Appalachian State University; Biology. 4. Mrs. Jane Crotts: Catawba College; Physics, Chemistry, and Advanced Math.

Math Dept.

Don't forget! $C^2 = A^2 + B^2$

Many educators believe that a basic understanding of mathematics enables the student to apply reason and logic. Throughout this year the Math Department has endeavored to help students strengthen their powers of reasoning. New equipment such as overhead projectors and board instruments helped teachers illustrate each problem.

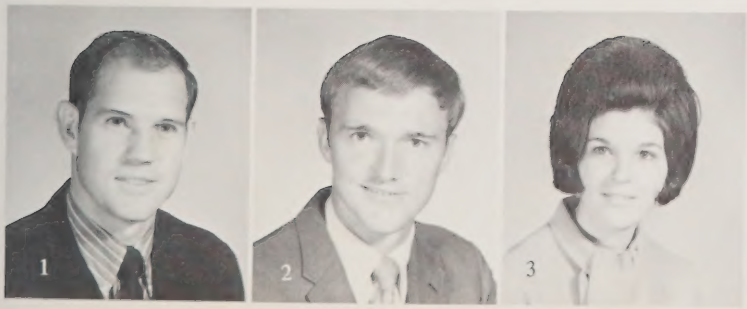
Health and Physical Education Dept.

Ready—exercise . . . 1,2,3,4 . . .

This year we were glad to have in our physical education department Mr. Griffin, Mr. Scott, and Mrs. Carpenter. Physical education became a number one favorite with the Freshmen. Students were taught various skills, which require timing, thought, and co-ordination.

Calisthenics is an important preliminary in each physical education session.



1. Mr. John Griffin: Elon College, Chowan College, World Geography, Physical Education, Advanced P.E. 2. Mr. Bill Scott: Appalachian State University, Health and P.E., Biology. 3. Mrs. Joyce Carpenter: Appalachian State University, Health and P.E., General Math, and Consumer Math.

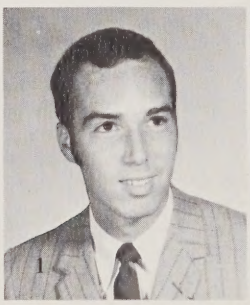
Business Dept.

Throw the carriage!

In Our Business Department, typing and shorthand were being used as new languages to the students, and they found it to be quite different. We had several new faces in the Department of Business, Mrs. Albright and Mr. Alexander.

Space and equipment assure students of proficiency in business skills.

Donna Meredith is assisted by Mrs. Albright in Advanced Bookkeeping.



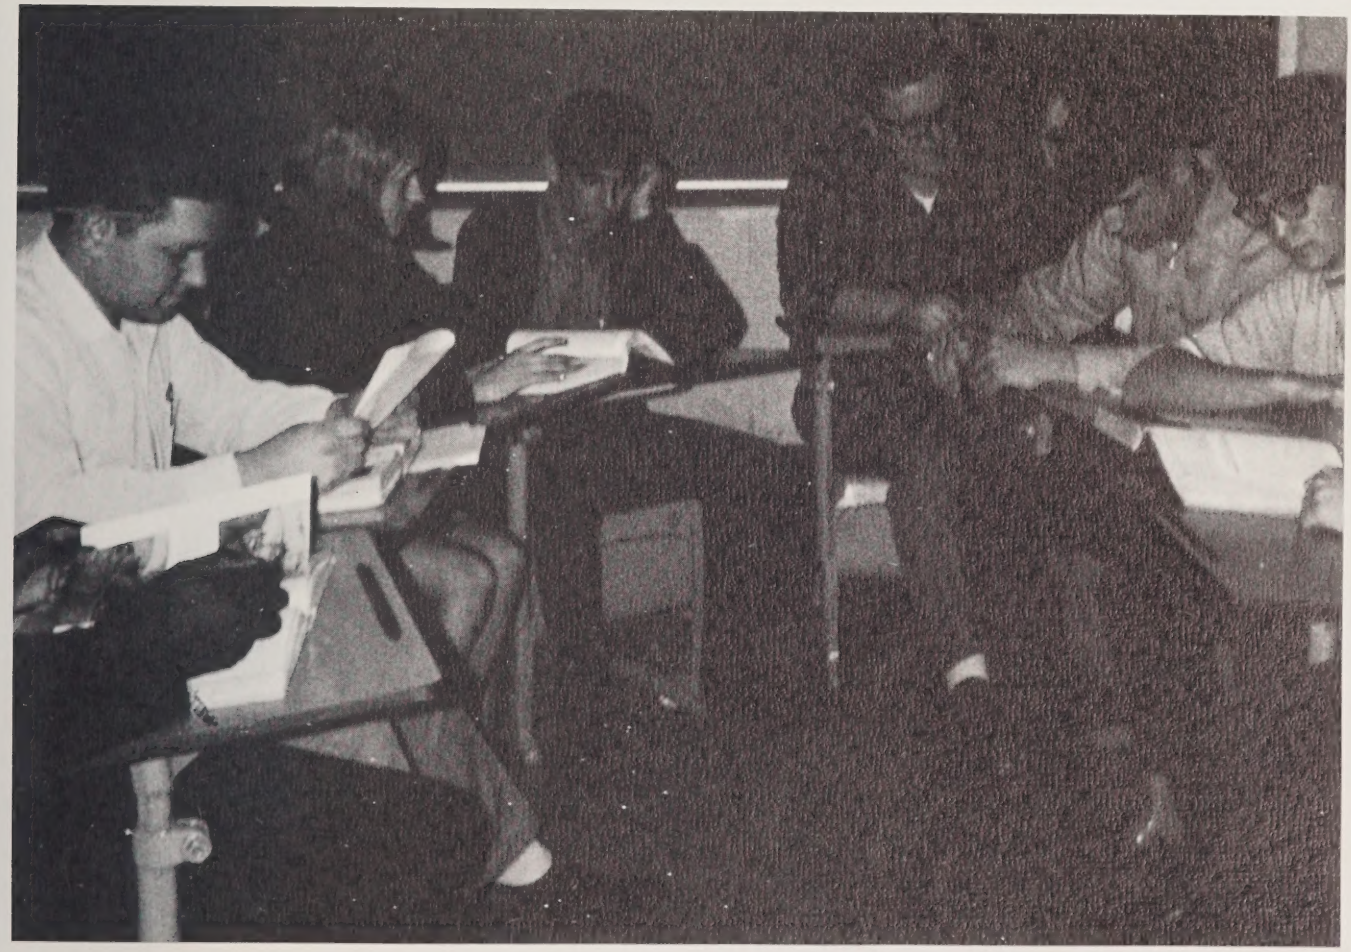
1. Mr. Tony Alexander: Appalachian State University, Business Math, Basic Business, Physical Science. 2. Miss Doris Knotts: Bennett College, Typing I, Shorthand, Business Math. 3. Mrs. Alice Albright, Catawba College, Shorthand II, Office Practice, Personal Typing, and Notehand, Physical Science.

Social Science Dept.

Who discovered America?

Central aided the introduction of the study of current affairs in the state school system. The study of current affairs goes deep into the world's problems facing us today.
We have, once again, one of the best social studies departments in the county. A student becomes profficient in government, social, and economic theory.

Mr. Ball's history class enjoys working in groups on projects.



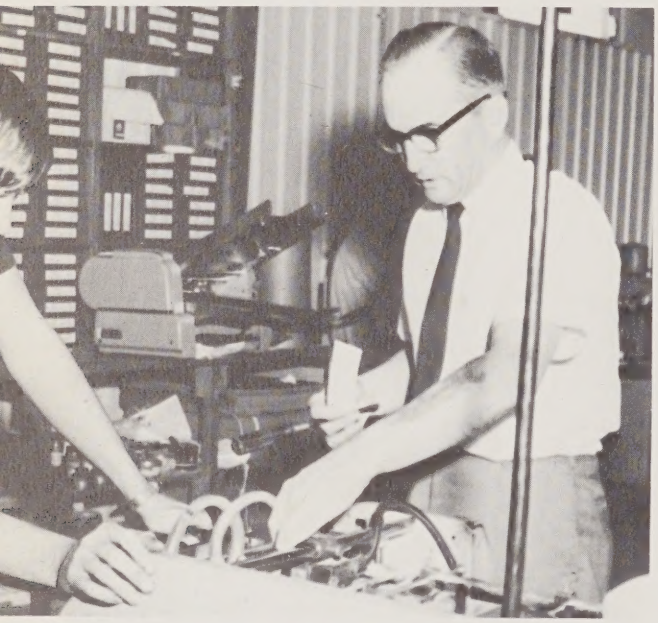
1. Mr. Dan Hutchinson: Guilford College, U.S. History, Economics and Sociology. 2. Mrs. Wesley Inman: Guilford College, World History, Current Affairs. 3. Mr. Hayden Thomas: Pfeiffer College, U.S. History, Civics. 4. Mr. Terry Ball: University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, World History, U.S. History.

Vocation Dept.

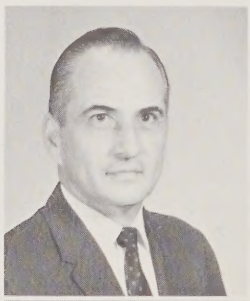
Students learn by on the job training

Vocational subjects usually prove most popular with students who plan to go directly into a job after graduation. However, an expanded program now encompasses more students. Home Economics was available to girls in all curriculums and Industrial Co-operative Training allowed students to go to school and hold a paying job simultaneously. Central was especially proud of the new printing shop, now in its first full year of operation.

Mr. McGuire and Steve Elberson work on the newspaper in the print shop.

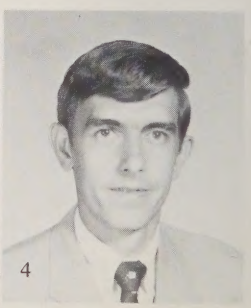


Sonny Rider, Ronnie Kiger, and Steve Brooks work during class in the school green house.



Mr. Dwight McGuire
Graphics and Industrial Communications.

1. Miss Brenda Hines: Appalachian State University, Home Economis I, II. 2. Mr. Norman Gambrell: North Carolina State University, I.I.E. 3. Mr. Andy Boyd: North Carolina State University, Horticulture, Vocational Agriculture. 4. Mr. Kirby Kanoy, Wingate College, East Tennessee State University, Industrial Co-operative Training.



Fine and Applied Arts Dept.

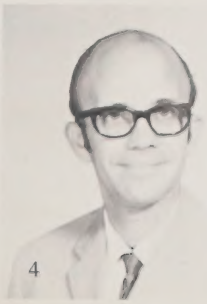
Self-expression is encouraged through the arts

In potpourri, we include the "finer arts"—band, art, and Driver Education.

Methods were the subject of the art course. The marching band was an important part of school spirit and public relations. Last, we have Driver Education. Students were eager to receive their license.

Karen Beck paints an original in Mrs. Bennett's art class.

Sylvia Pierce gets ready to observe as Ken Thompson takes the driver's seat for driver's education road work.



3. Mrs. Jane Bennett: Wake Forest University, Art. 4. Mr. Carlos Prado: High Point College, Band I and II. 5. Mr. C. Dean Slabach: Catawba College, Driver Education. 6. Mr. Carroll Spivey: Wofford College, Driver Education.

Homecoming

Junior and Senior floats tie for honors

Homecoming was the most eventful week of this fall. Actually preparations began two weeks in advance when the construction of floats began. Many hours were spent after school building the float that each class hoped would win the prize. Both the Junior and Senior classes were pleased when their entries tied for top honors.

We were not quite as fortunate in the game with North Davidson. "Big Red" was defeated by the score of 12-0 even though the team tried their best to add their part to the festivities.

Senior football players each sponsored a girl. The 1969 Seniors Sponsors are: Debbie Sexton, Linda Jarrett, Debbie Kepley, Jackie Beck, Donna Rogers, Lynda Browning, Stephanie Hedrick, Vickie Parks, Glenda Hedrick, and Beverly Power.

Carol has to bend her knees so Debbie Conrad, Homecoming Queen of 1968, can crown her.

The student body elected Rodney Grubb as their 1969 Homecoming King. He was crowned by the cheerleaders at the pep rally.

Seniors entered the competition with the float theme "Eliminate the Knights".

Spartan stadium saw many beautiful girls representing senior gridmen and football positions in the Homecoming Court. Carol Crissman gained the support of Central students and was elected to reign as Homecoming Queen.

Dancing to the "Avengers" after the game, ended a week of hard work and a lot of fun.

"It's A Victory", the Junior class float, depicts the scene of high hopes for a winning homecoming game.

Entertainment music provided all with sounds of the season.

Christmas Queen, Kathy Magee, with escort Jimmy Keply, enjoy socializing.

Students at Central swing with the beat.

Christmas Dance

"The Band Without a Name" set the beat

"The Band Without a Name" rocked to the holiday spirit.

On December 13, 1969, the Christmas spirit was born. The gym at Central High rang out with the sounds of the season and "The Band Without a Name" provided the beat. The gym was decorated with kissing balls and a tremendous Christmas tree in the center. At intermission, refreshments were served by the Home Economics Department and were enjoyed by all. This night will long be remembered in Christmases to come.

Mary Cox seems pleased with the happening.

Principal, Mr. Young, and wife got captivated by the holiday mood.

Soulful feet jived in beat with the "Magnificents'" funky music. Aching feet stood in line at the picture booths and refreshment table. At last there came a time for everyone's feet to tingle with suspense—the announcement of the 1969 Junior-Senior Prom King and Queen.

Beneath the rose-entwined gazebo, the crowning of the tear-eyed Sherry Ford and smiling Phil Hedrick, by Junior vice president, Ricky Jarrell, added a twinkling atmosphere to the theme, "Sitting in the Park."

Junior-Senior Prom

1969 prom: "Sitting in the Park"

While hours slowly slipped by, we wondered where time went until we realized, regretfully, that it had passed. It was lost to our wishes as we had awaited events full of anxious expectation. One happening which everyone at C.H.S. awaited was the Junior-Senior Prom.

Everyone possessed that certain atmosphere which hinted that the time was near. The girls scurried around to find "the" evening gown in which they hoped to make their date proud of them. The boys got measured for their coats hoping the same.

When the hour arrived, everyone was entranced with the melodies of the "MAGNIFICENTS" which totally filled the air. Then, as in the past, a wonderful prom was lost in the passing of time.

Mrs. Power, Chester George, Shirley Varner, Linda and Chris Jarrett, Gwinnie Williams, Danny Clinard, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael decided to sit this dance out.

The Junior Class provided enough refreshments for all.

Samuel Pickett and his date dance to the swinging beat of the "Magnificents."

May Day

May Day is an accomplishment of space

That walk into space–on the streets of light. Spacesuits of frills and lace–no helmets to smother out the beauty of beauties. Threads of moonbeams threaded into the hair of lovely astronauts. Dancing through sunlight and moonlight to the strings of harpists on board the angelic craft.

Is this really space? Does one feel the atmosphere of the occasion of–May Day? The May Pole as our life line, the participants our energy, and the throne as our goal. To be on this throne is an accomplishment of space–born free.

Senior Superlatives

Freedom breeds courtesy

Who was Sir Walter Raleigh? Danny Harvey shows Lynda Browning the most admirable trait of Sir Walter Raleigh; namely, courtesy.

By being free one can succeed

In 1969, man finally reached the moon. Astronauts Randy Crotts and Alice Briggs have succeeded in reaching their goals by doing their best.

Free to be the best

When it comes to being best-all-around, George and Martha Washington used their freedom to the best of their ability. But, doing the minuet, as Jackie Beck and Rodney Grubb are shown here doing, isn't all. Jackie and Rodney have achieved their goal by making Central a well-rounded school.

Free to be versatile

Benjamin Franklin and Betsy Ross used their freedom in helping America become a better country. Neal Woodall and Nancy Beeker used their freedom, in which versatility plays a big part, in helping Central become a better school in which to attend.

Freedom of motion has given Peggy Fleming and Bob Cousy a place in the world of competition. Don Myers and Lynn Kearny used their freedom of motion in helping Central become a better school in the world of competition and one of the tops in the athletic field.

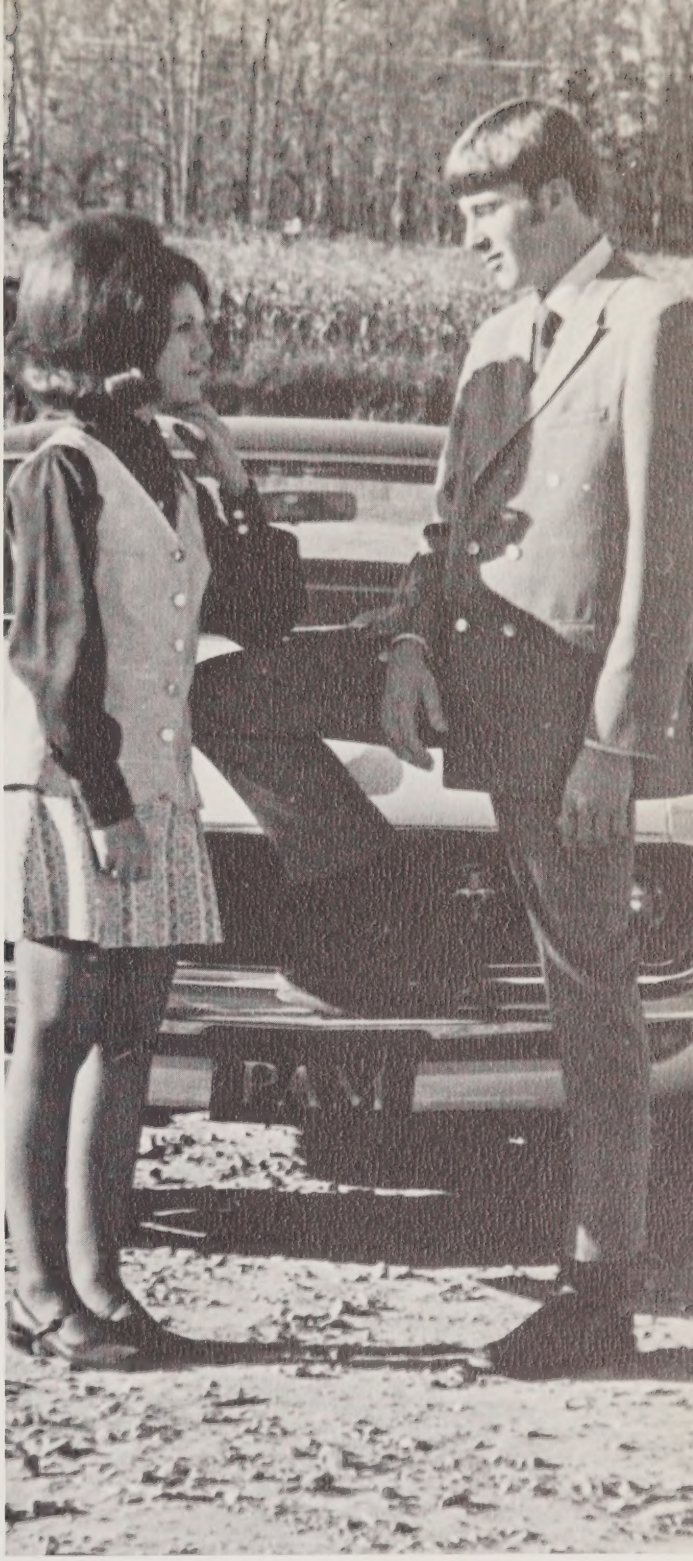
Free to participate

Friendship is one of America's finest heritages. It was shown by Pocahontas to John Smith in the early days of our history. Charles Lookabill and Donna Meredith still carry this tradition through the turmoil of America today.

Freedom gives friendship

One never knows what fascinating new discovery will unfold when promising intellectuals like Karen Milan and Bradley Hedrick combine to form a team. The Curies, I presume?

Free to excel



Through the years things change. Like people, the styles of dressing change. Danny Smith and Pam Tussey, our 1969 Bonnie and Clyde, have shown off some of the many changes of Central High.

Free to "do your thing"

Free to choose

In early America, one of the prettiest women of the South was Scarlett O'Hara. One of the most handsome men was Rhett Butler. Together they made a lovely couple. Here, Gwinnie Williams and Craig Stewart are shown portraying these characters.

Free to express

Carnivals and fairs are made more lively by clowns. They are constantly on the move, doing their best to keep peoples' spirits high. At Central, Phyllis Jones and Freddie Miller have succeeded well in keeping us laughing.

Mascots are eager helpers, entertainers, and friends

The Senior Class has really outdone themselves on their freedom of choice. Marshall Foster and Glenna Murph may be small, but they're the best friends a senior can have. This year's mascots are "tops."

Free to reflect, to live, to hope

What has happened at Central is told by Patty Conrad. Paula Burkhart sees that what we now think and feel is put down on paper. The future of all the seniors of Central High is told by Dwight Leonard.

Traffic and Safety committee: Jimmy Shinn, J.R. Doll, Lewis Coppley, Van Carlton, Nathan Varner, Roger Maddox, Bruce Lopp, Steve Houser, Doug Kirk, Oral Jarrett, Ken Hedrick, Benny Latham.

Personal Relations committee: Randy Davis, Lynda Browning, Karen Miller, Debbie Sechrist, Linda Foster, Karen Beck, Blaine Tysinger.

Recreation committee: Larry Younts, Vickie McCaslin, Lynn Kearney, Cheryl Magee, Debbie Sexton, Trudy Jones, Vicki Morrow, Mrs. Sharpe: sponsor.

Public Relations: Andy Myers, Ricky Leonard, Rodney Grubb, Sonny Rider, Ann Frye, Walda Kindley, Mike Beeker.

Scholarship and Attendance: David Hunt, Hoy Beck, Danny Story, Gwinnie Williams, Meta Leonard, Mary Picket, Eddie Bridges, Brenda Porter, Mr. Holmes: sponsor.

This year our student government has been busy with various activities. The student government sponsored the annual Homecoming and Christmas dance. The student government sold doughnuts to help raise money.

This year it formed a new council, the Student-Faculty Council. The purpose of this council is to let the students have some way of expressing the student body's opinions. This way, we can inform our teachers, and the teachers can express their opinions through the council to the student body. In the student government meetings they discussed what was going on at Central, any school problems, and student elections.

Student Government officers and committee chairmen: Dwight Leonard, president; Ricky Jarrell, vice-president; Phyllis Jones, secretary; Nancy Beeker, reporter; Lynn Kearney, recreation; Jackie Beck, citizenship; Karen Miller, personal; Andy Myers, public; Glenda Hedrick, assembly; David Hunt, scholarship; Joe Pope, traffic and safety; Mr. Thomas, sponsor.

Homeroom representatives: Kent Beck, Johnny Hedrick, Joanie Burkhart, Debbie Sechrest, Donna Meredith, Alicia Sink, Connie Younts, Jeannette Hedrick, Debbie Kepley, Debbie Blakely, Ann Frye, Robbie Roberts, Patricia Rowe, Lynda Browning, Patty Sturdivant, Janet Crissman, Luann Nance, Stephanie Hedrick, Kim Kirk, Bobby Joe Young, Gary Graves, Beverly Maner, Eugene Crotts.

Leaders are selected for their dependability

Student organizations were led capably through 1970 by Dwight Leonard. Dwight, in addition to being President of the student body, was an outstanding student in Drama. Because of his work as poetry editor of the Spartascript and service to the Spartan and Spartacus, he was admitted to the Quill and Scroll Society. He was elected to the position as Prophet by his senior class. Let us hope we will always have such versatile, capable leaders.

Executive committee discusses future plans.

Student-Faculty Committee is inaugurated

New, different, and a step in the right direction is the description of the new Student-Faculty Committee Everyone at Central, both students and teachers, have hopes that this committee will promote some new policies that will benefit all.

Initially, the committee discussed problems such as honor roll, newspaper, and school spirit. So far, discussion has been the limit, but out of such talks, hopefully, will come action.

C.H.S. busdrivers: David Ashby, Dwight Leonard, Nancy Allen, Mary Pickett, Ronnie Kiger, Ricky Prevett, Vickie McGuire, Sandra Rimer, Debbie Harrison, Linda Lemly, Aaron Cross.

Student-Faculty committee: Dwight Leonard, Danny Smith, Mr. Thomas, Miss Robbins, Mr. Young, Freddy Pugh, Mr. Swicegood, Miss Knotts, Vicki Morrow, Mrs. Power, Rochelle Crawford.

Civinettes do service for the Central Community

Civinettes sell doughnuts to Mr. Young and Mr. Alexander to raise money.

Junior Civinettes were organized to allow girls to become good Central citizens. They were one of the clubs who moved to night meetings, since they felt that the club period was inadequate to fill their needs.

Doughnuts were sold to raise money for the Sweetheart Dance on Valentine's Day. It gave us something to look forward to between the Christmas Dance and the Junior-Senior. Perhaps such an event will become an annual affair.

Mrs. Harris is the sponsor.

N.H.S. produces leaders of democracy

At their induction, new members of the Nation Honor Society vowed to render leadership and service to their school, community, state, and country. During the year, Central's academically gifted students worked to fulfill these obligations.

This year the National Honor Society worked to fulfill their responsibilities by performing many worthwhile tasks. Central was able to say "Merry Christmas" to several families in the community through the efforts of the National Honor Society's White Christmas Campaign. By selling popcorn at ballgames, the N.H.S. raised money to finance a scholarship for one of its worthy members. The year has proven that the National Honor Society has done much to produce better citizens for tomorrow.

Gwinnie Williams, Frances Stokes and Alice Briggs collect White Christmas articles from homerooms.

Teresa Gobble is tapped into the N.H.S. by former member, Darlene Kepley.

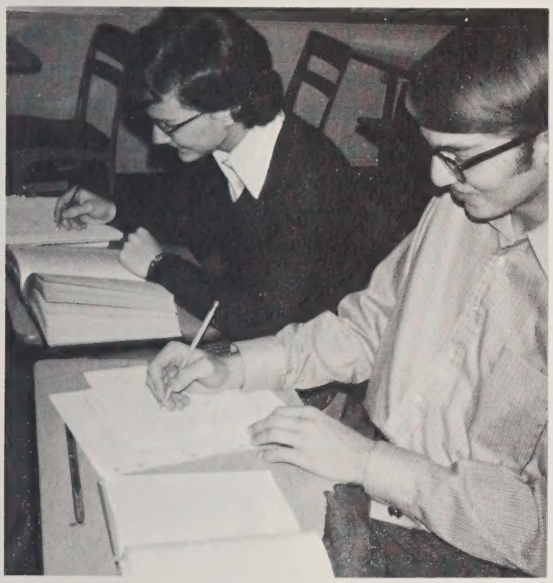
Mrs. Inman gives White Christmas list to Randy Crotts.

N.H.S. members are: Eleanor Pickett, Teresa Gobble, Mitzi Woodle, Gwinnie Williams, Frances Stokes, Karen Milan, Jeannette Hedrick, Danny Smith, Hoy Beck, Lynn Floyd, Linda Cope, Patty Frye, Bradley Hedrick, Janet Beck, Jackie Beck, Brenda Floyd, Jean Lambeth, Peggy Prevett, Alice Briggs, Ann Hancock, Patty Conrad, Bonnie Smith, Janet Brink, Randy Crotts.

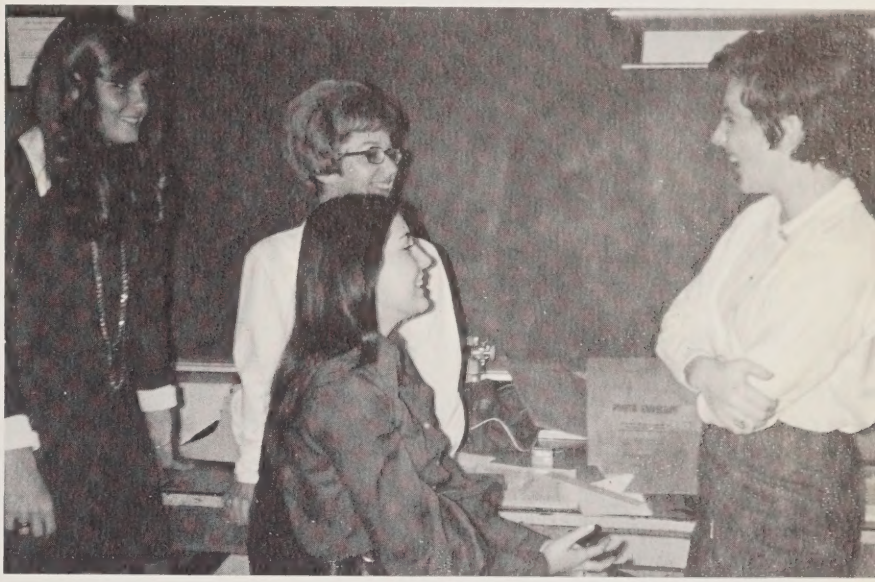
L.A. Martin is honored by local chapter

Quill and Scroll, the honorary society for journalism students, was oriented in the spring of 1969. In its first year of organization, it inducted ten new members. These members were chosen from the top third of their classes and had contributed outstandingly to a school publication. The Central chapter was named in honor of L.A. Martin, one of Lexington's most prominent writers.

Lynn Kearney and Mike Garner are putting their journalistic ability to use.



Sponsors discuss induction of new members.



The members of the Quill and Scroll are: Danny Smith, Eleanor Pickett, Jackie Beck, Mike Garner, Jeannette Hedrick, Lynn Kearney, Renee Crotts, Freddie Pugh, Patty Frye, Paula Burkhart, and Nancy Beeker.

Livestock judging team wins first place

Many boys engaged in the agricultural program at Central join the Future Farmers of America. It is especially beneficial for those who are planning to become professional farmers. One of the activities during the year was construction of exhibits at the Davidson County Fair. At this year's fair, the livestock judging team won first place for the county.

Other activities during the year included sponsoring car washes to raise money, participation in a county tool identification contest, and entering in a county-wide speaking contest with relation to parliamentary procedure. In the spring they participated in a county soil classification contest and the annual District Rally. F.F.A. remained active during the summer by attending the F.F.A. Convention in Raleigh.

Future Homemakers of America

Faculty enjoys National F.H.A. Week

The Future Homemakers of America of Central High is open to all girls who have taken a Home Economics course. A fair booth by the F.H.A. added tremendously to the festivities during Davidson County Fair Week. National F.H.A. Week was set aside for special activities which included a tea and breakfast for the faculty, a drive for food to be sent to needy families, and a free windshield wash for all faculty member's cars. The social highlight for this year in the club was the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

The F.H.A. also served the community by sending Christmas cards to servicemen and residents of the local rest homes. A scholarship was given to a Senior girl at the end of the year.

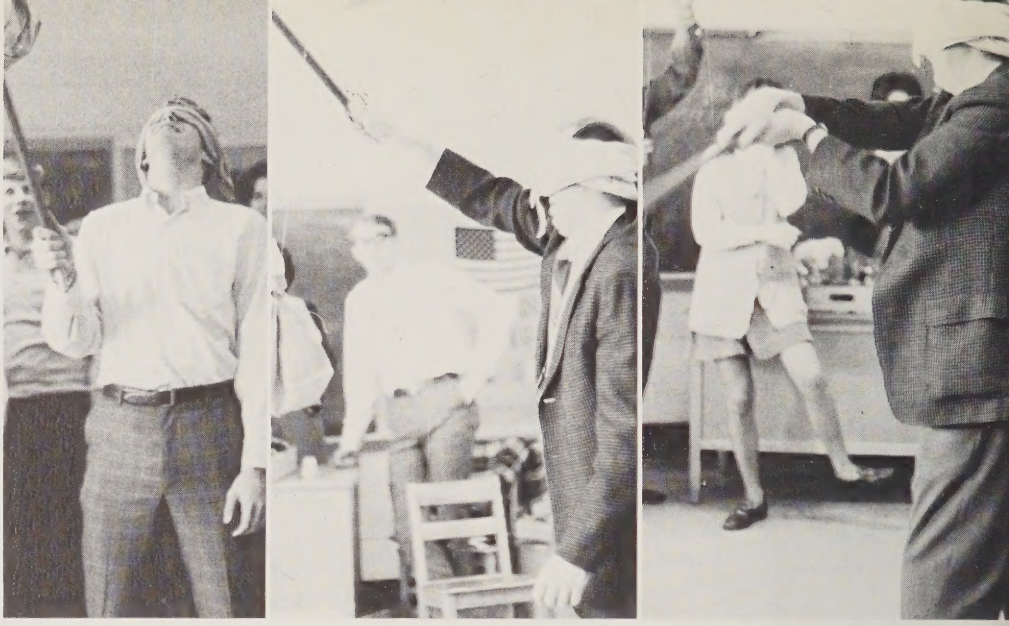
F.H.A. girls are a vital part of Central's school life and carry on many activities which prove their worthiness as a club.

Spanish Club

¡Vamanos Spartans, Vamanas!

Central's Homecoming pep rally took on a foreign atmosphere as the spirited Spanish Club gave some rousing cheers in Spanish. During this year the club has continually brought this atmosphere to our school, through their songs, dances, and the traditional pinata at Christmas.

Most club members agreed that through their participation in this organization they gained a truer understanding and appreciation of the Spanish background, customs, and language.



Spanish students eagerly await the breaking of the pinata.

Joan Beamon gives the old pinata a last whack!

Rena Yarborough and Donna Rogers think they're lovely senoritas.

Blaine Tysinger gives one last yell!

Library Club says sh-h-h-h!

All library assistants are eligible for membership in the Central Library Club. Members are responsible for the appearance of the library, issuing books, and informing students of library regulations. Trips to the district and state conventions of the North Carolina High School Library Association, plus a trip to the Morehead Planetarium were the rewards of the tedious work performed by its members.

Library club members are: Gloria Warner, Jeannette Thomason, Kay Sexton, Joyce Moretz, Brenda Floyd, Debbie Harrison, Wanda Moretz, James Lambeth, Junior Porter, Oral Jarrett, Ronnie Kigor, Lawanna Hall, Christine Lemly, Melanie Wright, Patty Winston, Marsha Dunn, Sandi Rimer, Debbie Gallimore, Vickie Allen, Vickie Wright, Nancy Allen.

"Le Cercle Francais" became food tasters

The French Club or "Le Cercle Francais" is to help students understand the culture of the French people. Members conversed in French and dinners of classic French foods were served at the dinner meetings. Fluency was a goal aimed for by all members. Projects were assigned in subjects that interested the students. After another busy year, members bid each other "au revoir" until another year.

Mr. Bennett, guest speaker at the 1969 French banquet, converses with Ann Sherman and sponsor, Mrs. Harris.

"Le Cercle Francais": Debbie Sechrist, Rochelle Crawford, Joan Lambeth, Clara Stokes, Betty Sutton, Beverly Sheets, Carolyn Walls, Linda Aldridge, Perry Jackson, Mrs. Harris: sponsor.

"The Atomic World" challenged future scientists

Special programs on "Science In Our Lives" were presented to the C.H.S. student body by the Science Club. One of the most successful of these shows was the "Atomic World." This show explained the make-up, importance, and practical uses of the atom in an original use of audio-visual aids. The narrator of this show, Gene Eagles, also talked to the club members about the various fields that pertain to science in our modern life. Perhaps through its presentation of various scientific assemblies, the Science Club has attracted newcomers to its world of experimentation and discovery.

Gene Eagles, narrator of the "Atomic World", receives help in putting his equipment in his car.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

F.C.A. promotes "The Restless Ones"

Central's huddle of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes became one of the most active clubs in its first two years of organization. The FCA was engaged in year 'round activities to raise money and, in turn, serve the Central community.

In the fall, FCA'ers raked leaves to earn money. A special service project was contributed when the FCA worked with the Billy Graham Committee and sold advance tickets to the movie, "The Restless Ones."

A major service that the Fellowship rendered was the sending of Christmas packages to former athletes now in service. During the summer, several members, sponsored by the local club, go to FCA camp at Black Mountain.

Members of the FCA enjoyed these activities. In the words of Dean Smith, "We are not a communion of saints, just people who need help."

Monogram Club sells cushions

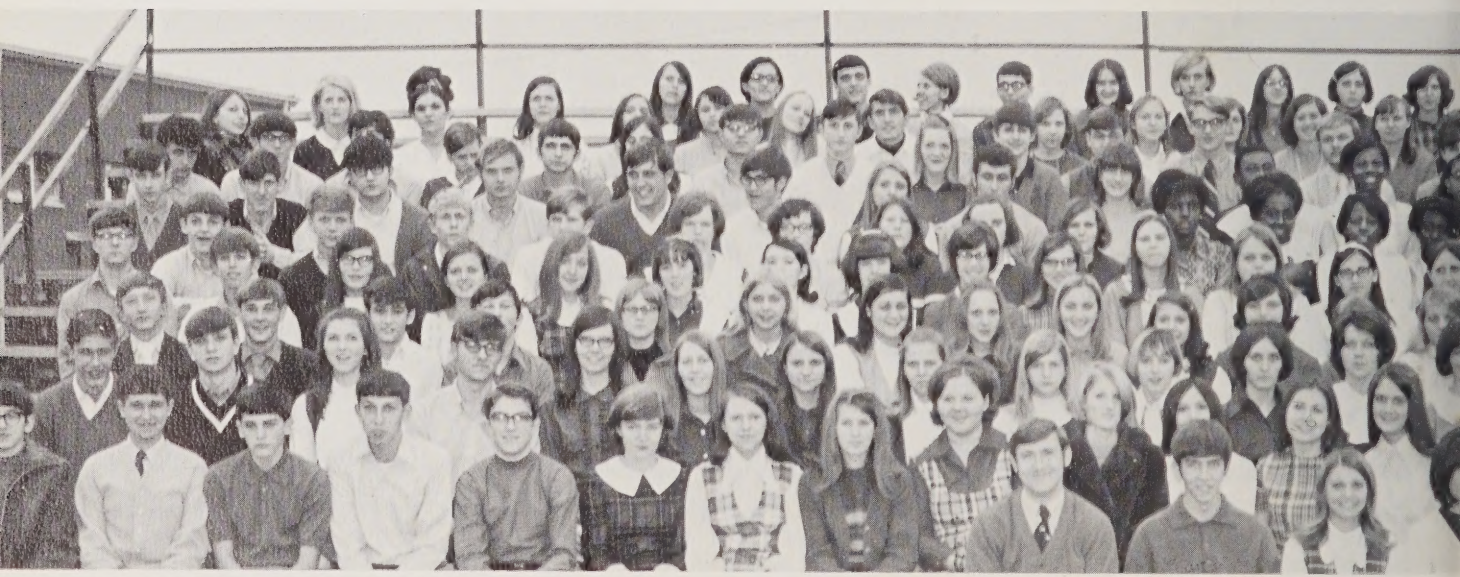
Bearers of the scarlet "C" constitute the Monogram Club. Worthy athletes who can pass initiation were allowed into the organization.

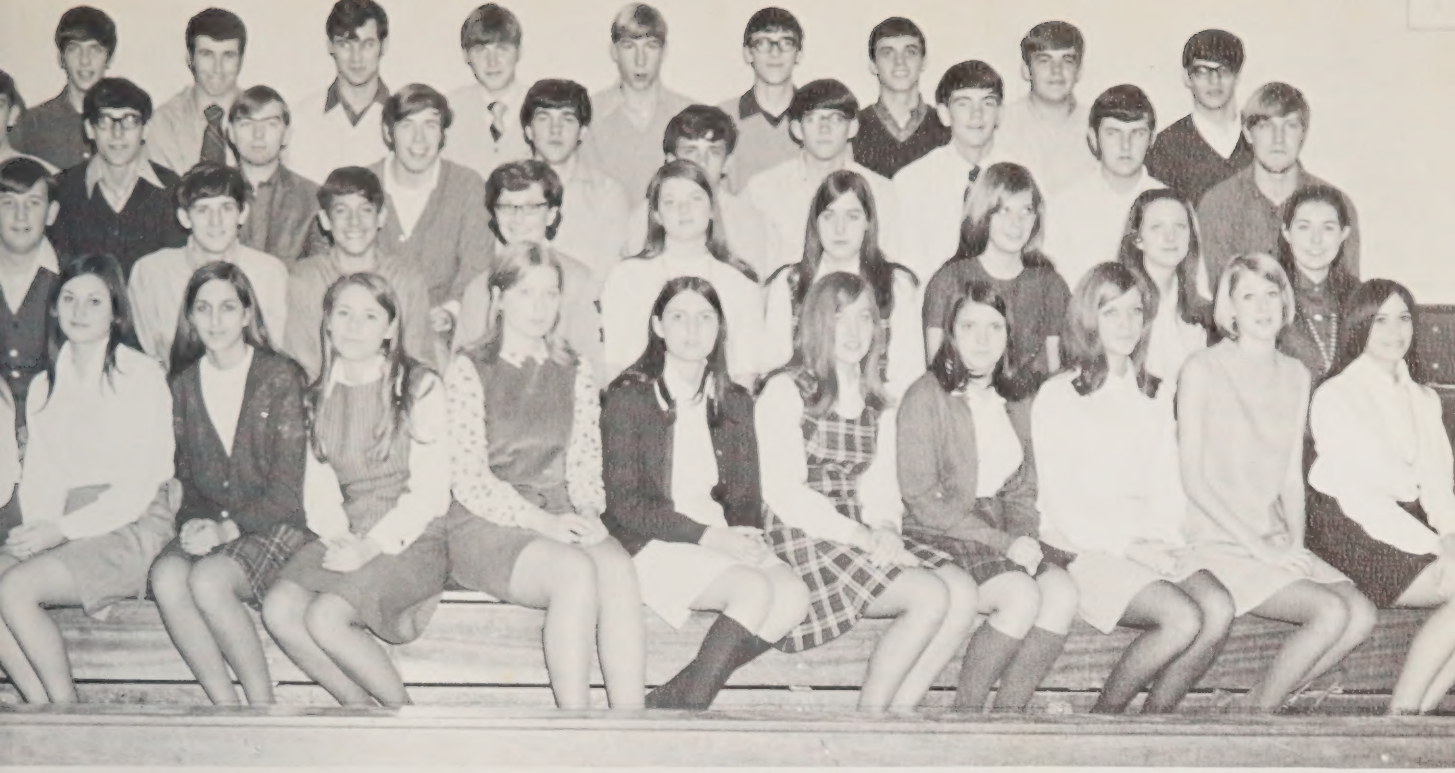
This year's most important contribution was a section of bleachers in the new stadium. To finance this endeavor, lettermen (and women) sold cushions bearing the Spartan crest.

In the spring, new members were subjected to a gruelling day of initiation by the old members to make sure they had "the stuff Spartans are made of."

Monogram Club members are: Freddie Miller, David McCrary, Bradley Hedrick, Dan Hedrick, Rodney Grubb, Neal Woodall, Danny Smith, Andy Myers, Danny Harvey, Rodney Owens, Sammy Davis, Gary Graves, Cecil Evans, Anthony Hunt, Michael Mayhew, Don Myers, Jerry Hill, Jimmy Renas, Randy Davis, Kenny Green, Randy Crotts, Tommy Mabe, Bruce Kirk, David Hunt, Steve Hedrick, Freddie Miller, Bobby Young, Lynn Kearney, Pam Smith, Rhonda Smith, Jeannette Hedrick, Debbie Beck, Jackie Beck, Carol Crissman, Judy Younts, Debbie Kepley, Becky Cagle, Mitiz Woodle, Libby Cox, Debbie Sexton, Jennifer King, Glenda Hedrick, Shela Hedrick, Vicki Parks.

Central has had many dances after school ballgames. Everyone seems to be living it up and really enjoying themselves.





1. Everyone is having a jolly time at the Twirp Dance. 2. Mike Lambros is waiting for someone to ask him to dance. 3. Randy Crotts is trying to sell Linda Browning a cushion to make money for the Monogram Club.

Pep Club

Pep Club sponsors sock-hops

The Pep Club promoted spirit at Central in many ways during the year. They had a number of dances after ballgames and helped the Civinettes with a Valentine's Dance. Another way they created spirit was by chartering buses to away games. The members and cheerleaders cheered our teams to victories. Mr. Ball, sponsor, aided in spreading spirit through Central.

Pep Club members worked to make the school spirit of Central the best it has ever been. They sponsored many projects which were successful. We here at Central owe our school spirit to the work of the Pep Club.

Hunting and Fishing Club takes to outdoor life

Enjoy the out-of-doors? Many boys and girls were given the opportunity to take part in many out-of-door events through the efforts of the Hunting and Fishing Club. Fall and spring found camping trips while winter was reserved for hunting. Students were taught how to live out-of-doors and even more important, they were taught the conservation laws which allow more people to enjoy nature.

F.T.A. observes National Education Week

At Central, many students are planning to become teachers. An organization designed to better aquaint these students with the activities of a teacher is the FTA.

November 9-15 was Education Week in which several activities were scheduled. Meetings were held in the homes of the members. At the close of the year, the FTA produced many students more aware of the duties and benefits of the teaching profession.

1. FTA members arrive at Claude's Restaurant for their Christmas Party. 2. Teachers enjoy the refreshments served by the FTA girls during National Education Week.

FTA members are Joanie Burkhart, Renee Crotts, Vickie Regan, Libby Cox, Betty Sutton, Patty Frye, Melinda Burkhart, Karen Burkhart, Patricia Hedrick, and Lynn Kearney.

Unlimited range of jobs discovered

A visit to the North Carolina School of Automation acquainted the Future Business Leaders of America with computers and data machines. Guest speakers and various trips to industrial businesses also aided in guiding F.B.L.A. members in selecting future careers.

Judy Medley Foster is Miss F.B.L.A.

F.B.L.A. members: James Fuller, James Tysinger, Carol Floyd, Peggy Tysinger, Brenda Tuttle, Alice Young, Kathy Phillips, Marsha Leonard, Donna Meredith, Vicki Carrick, Sandra Hunt, Diane Lambeth, Loretta Wilson, Brenda Hargrave, Rochelle Crawford, Della Musgrave, Wanda Cross, Judy Foster, Doris Coppley, Jeannette Thomason, Wanda Cody, Vicki Skeen, Glenda Graves, Bonnie Shore, Wilma Westbrook, Vicki McGuire, Franklin Hogan, Preston Hargrove, Edith Bullum, Linda Simpkins, Pam Shoaf, Beverly Tysinger, Mr. Alexander: sponsor.

G.I.C. prints school paper

Our printing class at Central was kept very busy. One of their jobs was printing The Spartacus, Central's newspaper. They also printed Davis-Townsend School's newspaper, our Spartan football and basketball schedules, and Christmas cards for all the high school students.

A G.I.C. student learned many skills in graphics. The student learned how to use various machines such as the lineotype, photograph developer, and an actual printing press. Many decided to take a career in printing based on what they learned in class.

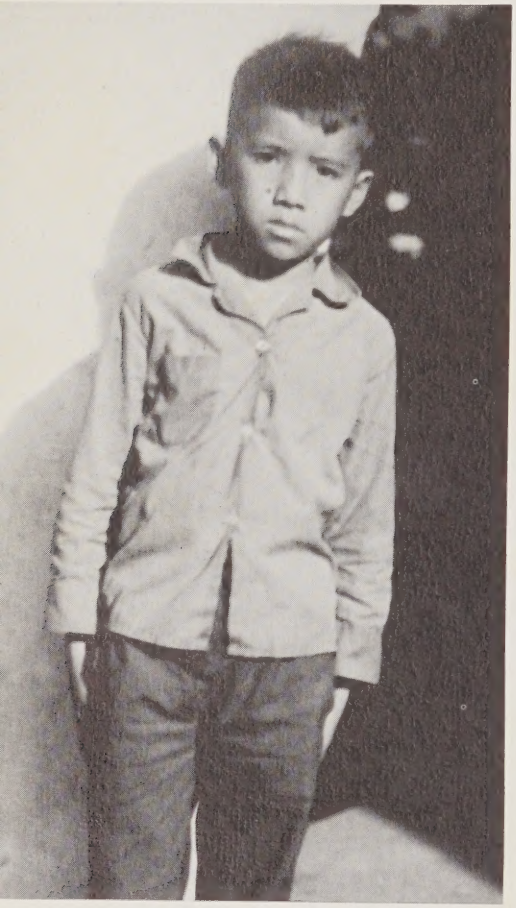
Industrial Cooperative Training

ICT becomes foster parent

The job of our ICT students is to work and attend school also. They come to school and attend morning classes until one o'clock in the afternoon and then go to work. Our ICT program has been very successful.

One of their activities was sponsoring a foster child. This foster child was a young Vietnamese boy.



NGUYEN VAN NHAN–
Nhan's family lives at Ho Nai, about 22 miles from Saigon. Nhan is in the 3rd grade, pays $1.03 a month for tuition, says he would like to be a teacher. He is polite, obedient, helpful.

PLAN aid provides monthly case grant, special family health services, encouragement and guidance of social workers and director. Wherever possible, clothing and supplies are given but where the wartime conditions make this impossible, an added monthly cash grant is bestowed instead for the duration of the situation. All is your own generous gift, but what means as much is the warm friendship that really cares.

Dance Club jives and the Chess Club moves

A new club was formed at Central this year. It was the Dance Club. The main idea of the club was for the sponsors, Mrs. Wetmore and Mrs. Bennett, to teach the students classic dances and for the students, in return, to teach them modern dances of today. The Dance Club was one of the largest clubs at Central and also very "swinging"!

"Spartacus" Staff

Extra! Extra! Read all about it

Members of the Spartacus staff contributed much of themselves toward producing a good newspaper for the students of Central. They spent class time studying construction, news-writing, and great journalists. The result was a bi-weekly edition printed by the GIC class.

Often, members of the staff showed outstanding ability in their publication work. These abilities were awarded by admission to the Quill and Scroll Society and sometimes, a trip to a journalism institute or conference.

Trudy Jones, Vickie Morrow, James Tysinger, and Lynn Kearney work together to complete a layout.

Spartans present "Born Free"

Members of the Annual Staff are: Bradley Hedrick, Terry Hedrick, Ronald Hughes, Danny Smith, Jackie Beck, Renee Crotts, Lynn Floyd, Patty Frye, Brenda Hargrave, Glenda Sue Hedrick, Jeanette Hedrick, Stephanie Hedrick, Patrice Kepley, Carla Lookabill, Mickie McGuire, Vickie McGuire, Vickie Parks, and Vickie Regan. The Annual Staff sponser is Mrs. Wetmore.

Reflecting the year in pictures and words, The Spartan served as a keepsake to remind students of another year at Central. Staff members contributed both time and talent to finance as well as produce a book which would serve as a history book and furnish information also. Each staff member was constantly striving for originality as each page unfolded. This is the final product.

Spartascript Staff

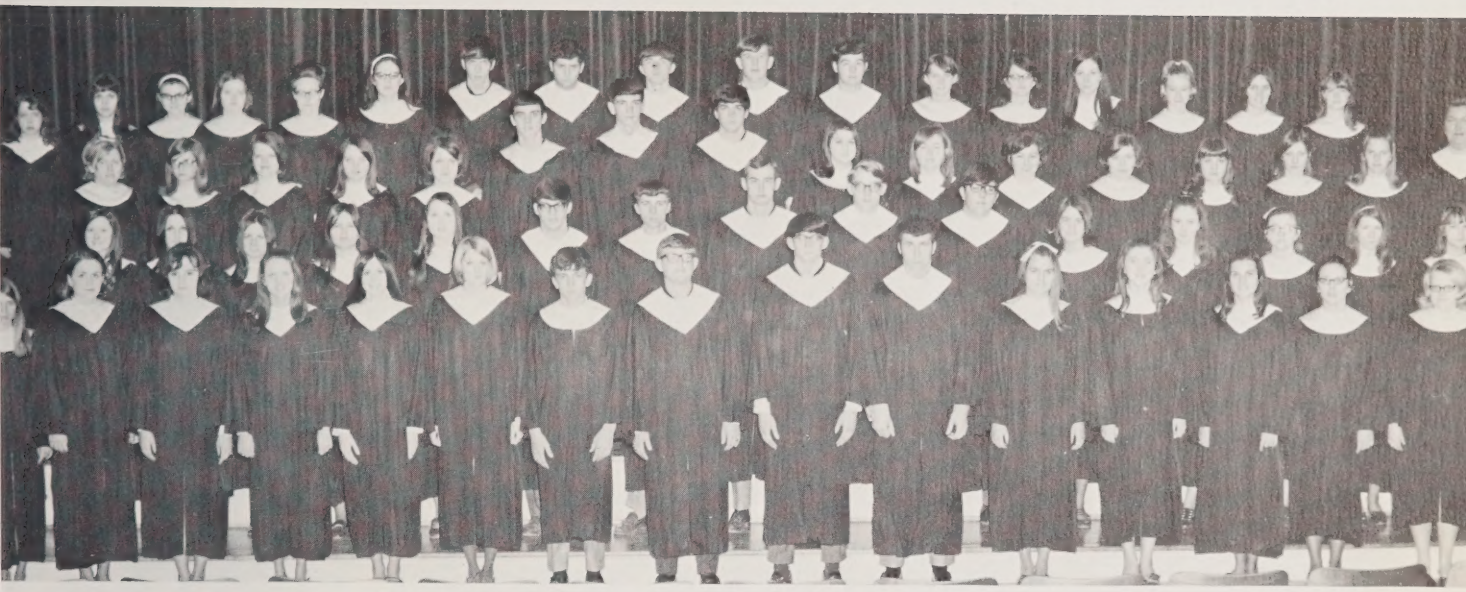
A new literary item is added

Good literature, written by students, was what the magazine editors were constantly looking for. After a lapse of several years, the Spartascript came back into publication during 1970. Forms acceptable for publication were original poems, and short stories. Plans for seasonal additions are in the making for the future.

Magazine staff members, Dwight Leonard, Michael Garner, Eleanor Pickett, Paula Burkhart and Debbie Kepley judge some selections submitted to them.

The Spartascript staff members are Karen Cowan, Eleanor Pickett, Dwight Leonard, Michael Garner, Debbie Kepley, Paula Burkhart, and Trudy Jones.

Chorus sings Do-Re-Mi



The Chorus prepares to give a dress performance.

Students who possess a talent for singing were allowed to display their talent in the Chorus. In addition, they were given class credit while doing something that they enjoyed.

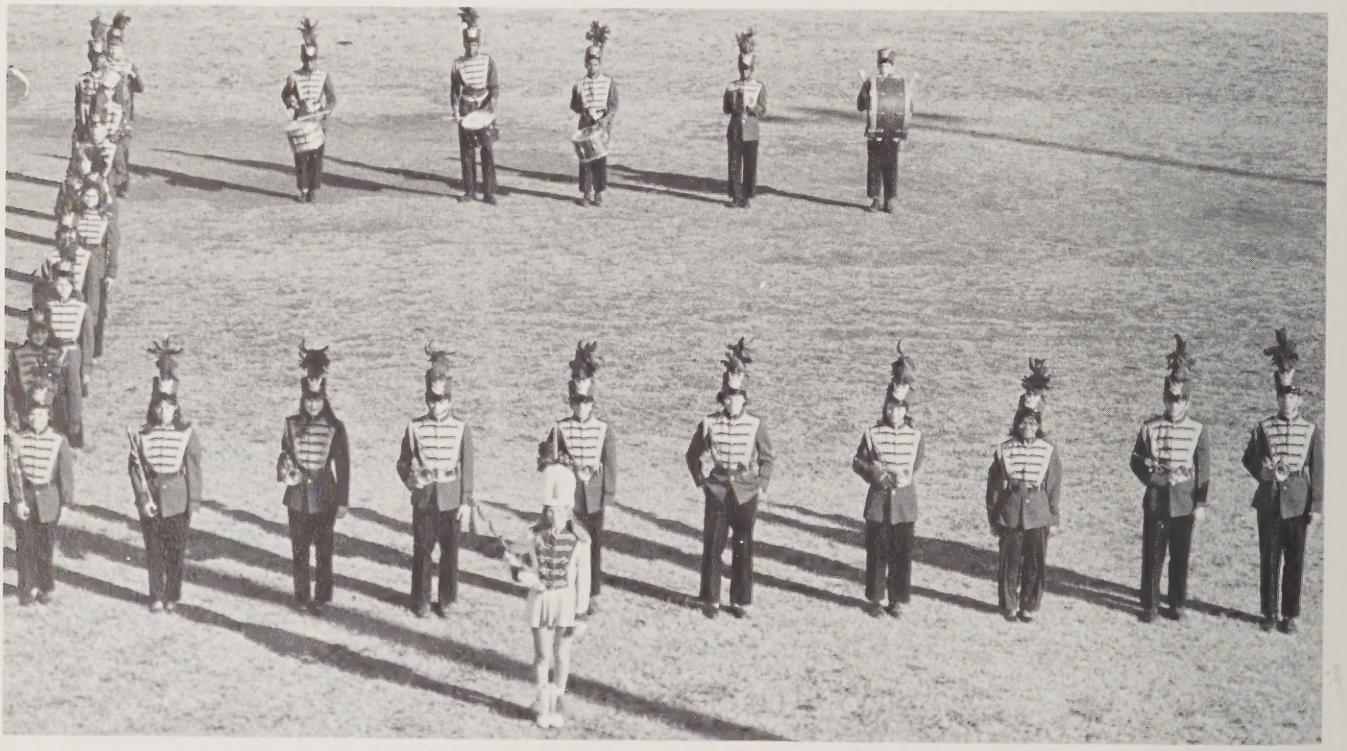
On several occasions the Chorus and Drama Department combined their programs to present to the students. Such an occasion was Christmas. Thanksgiving was also praised by the singers. Central students enjoyed these programs and their wish is the title of the Chorus' favorite song, "More".

Alice Briggs serves as the pianist for the Chorus.

The group is directed by Miss Rhonda Robbins.

Cologuard: Perry Jackson, Layne Pearson, Mitzi Woodle, Debbie Beck, Vickie Carrick, Luann Nance, Brenda McLamb.

Band members are: Wayne Sneed, Charles Giles, Reginald Rease, Joe Roberts, Jimmy Holmes, Keathley Green, Franklin Hogan, Lynn Sinder, Dann Davis, Gary Owens, Beverly Flowe, Debbie Berrier, Margaret Rogers, Patricia Hedrick, Kathy Fritts, Micky McGuire, Sandra Mathis, J.R. Doll, Steve Black, Becky Cupp, Charlotte Pittman, Irene Wright, Bobby Coble, Donald Mathis, Dawn Beck.



The band was always kept busy performing for pep rallies, football games, and parades. November saw the "Marching Spartans" participate in three parades, two in Lexington and one in High Point.

Hopefully, the band will grow within the next few years. About thirty-five students were involved in the Junior and Senior Band programs.

What better way to dress up a marching band than with marching girls? Not only did majorettes add to the performance of the band, but they also performed choreography dances with the cheerleaders during the pep rallies.

During the spring the girls sold cupcakes at break and handled the concession of drinks at the spring play to finance a trip to North Carolina State University Majorette Camp.

Flags and Uncle Sam hats added to the band's performance in the Veterans' Day parade.

Marching Spartans participate in three parades

The 1970 Majorettes are: Glenda Hedrick, Vicki Parks, Jeannette Hedrick, chief; Pam Smith, Rhonda Smith, Debbie Kepley.

Varsity Squad wins spirit bell

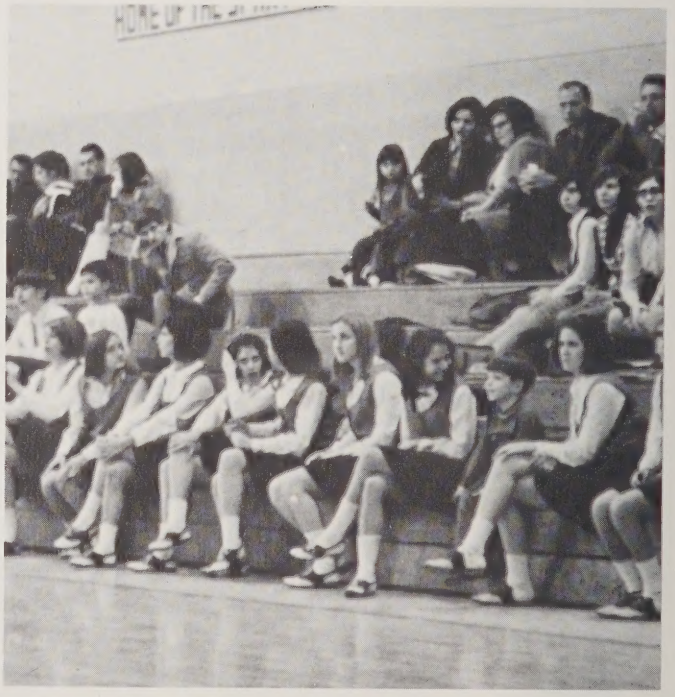
J.V. Cheerleaders are Betsy Webster, Judy Hedrick, Karen Wilson, Beverly Power, Yvonne Cross; chief, Janet Crissman, Doris King, Tippy Kepley, and Donna Rogers.

Our Varsity Cheerleaders have done much to promote spirit this year at Central. The Cheerleaders made posters for the halls, sold ribbons, and had pep rallies in preparation for the sports activities of our school.

During the past summer our squad attended Camp Pla-Mor Cheerleading School and were awarded the spirit bell and two ribbons for their outstanding school spirit, cheering, and co-operation.

J.V. Cheerleaders had double duty when they cheered both J.V. and Freshman teams on to victory.

Cheerleaders spend many of their afternoons making posters.



J.V.'s watch the game waiting for the action to begin.

Varsity Cheerleaders are Phyllis Jones; chief, Judi Younts, Carol Crissman, Jackie Beck, Vickie Morrow, Debbie Sechrest, Stephanie Hedrick, Bonnie Smith, and Donna Hill.

Cheerleaders take part in the Veteran's Day Parade!

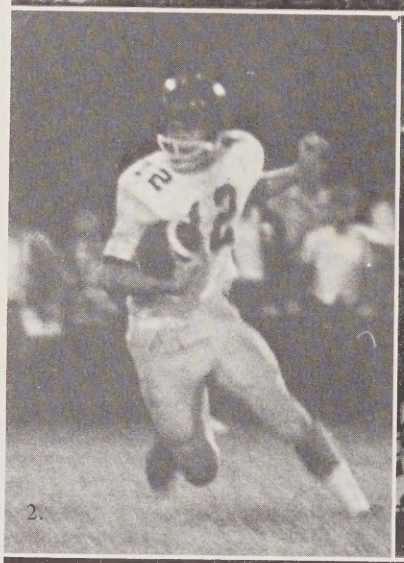
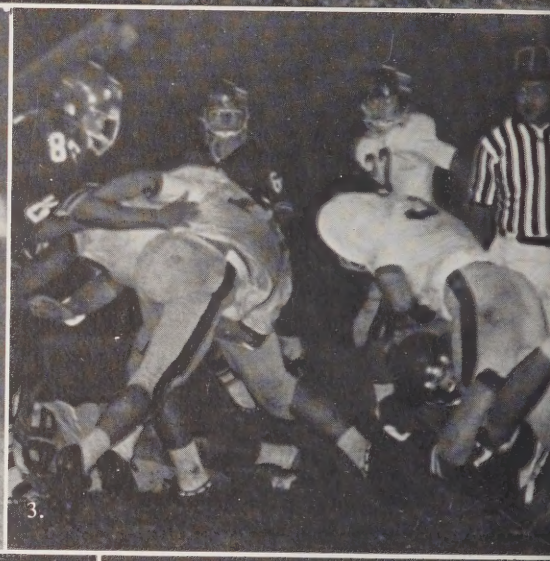
Look tough Spartans!

The Spartan football team experienced a very disappointing season in the tough Piedmont Conference. The team compilled a 1-8-1 record by winning their opener against non-conference foe, Mount Pleasant. A tie with Davie County in mid-season added the only other positive mark in the score column.

The 1969 Spartans were coached by a newcomer to the school, Mr. John Griffin. Leading the Spartan attack this year was Rodney Grubb. Rodney has occupied the varsity quarterback slot for three consecutive seasons and was the team captain for the 1969 season. Leading the Spartans in rushing were David Hunt and Anthony Hunt. Tough defensive standouts were Michael Mayhew, David Hunt and Melvin Walser. Top pass receivers were Michael Mayhew and Don Myers.

Central is now looking forward to its competition next year in a newly formed conference.

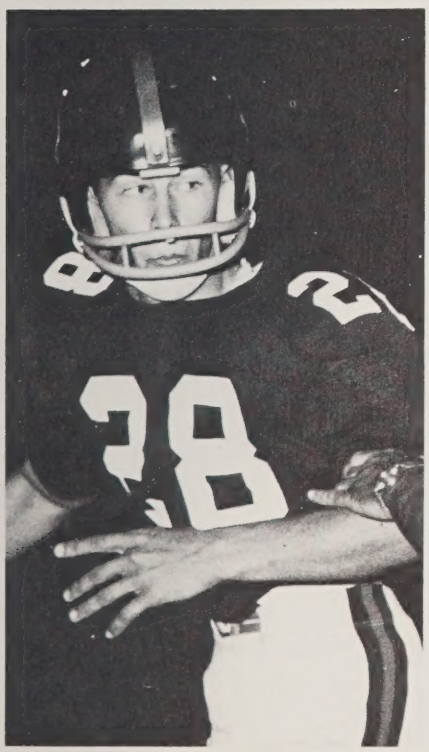




1. Central shows its tackle power! 2. Grubb scrambles for extra yardage. 3. Anthony Hunt dives for a first down. 4. Rodney Grubb drops back to pass. 5. Myers leaps high amid three defenders to catch the pass.

Central's Freshmen football team produced the best results for their efforts by compiling an overall record of 6-1. The team, coached by Mr. Dan Hutchinson, was led by many outstanding players and played excellently as a team. Leading the "Baby Spartans" at quarterback was Chris Smith. Blaine Tysinger and Bobby Fuller led the team in rushing and scoring. The team had outstanding players in practically all the positions and are expected to give quite a boost to the varsity squad.

Central fights for tough yardage.



Now what? This question seems to be on Chris Jarrett's mind as he starts to run out on the field.

Chris Jarrett carries the ball on an end-around play.

Girls' basketball teams "sock it to em"!

1970 Girls' Varsity Basketball squad: Lynn Kearney, Lynn Floyd, Nancy Beeker, Pam Smith, Rhonda Smith, Debbie Blakely, Libby Cox, Debbie Sexton, Becky Cupp, Walda Kindley, Patrice Lepley, Jennifer King, Sharon Hunt, Brenda Porter, Ann Burkhart, Managers: Becky Cagle, Vicki Regan; coach: John Griffen.

Led by co-captains Lynn Kearney and Debbie Sexton, the Central Spartanettes jumped off to a winning season. Hampered by injuries after the season began, the girls managed to stay in the race for the championship.

With nine returning lettermen, this year's team was well-experienced. The Spartanettes posted a victorious record, having underclassmen playing regularly.

Coached by Mr. John Griffin, the girls succeeded in making an impression during the 1969-1970 season.

The Freshman Girls' Basketball team was organized for the first time this year to give more girls a chance to participate in a sport. They have worked together to improve on teamwork and the fundamentals of the game. As the season moved along, they showed more progress, and we hope that this will become a permanent team on our athletic calendar.

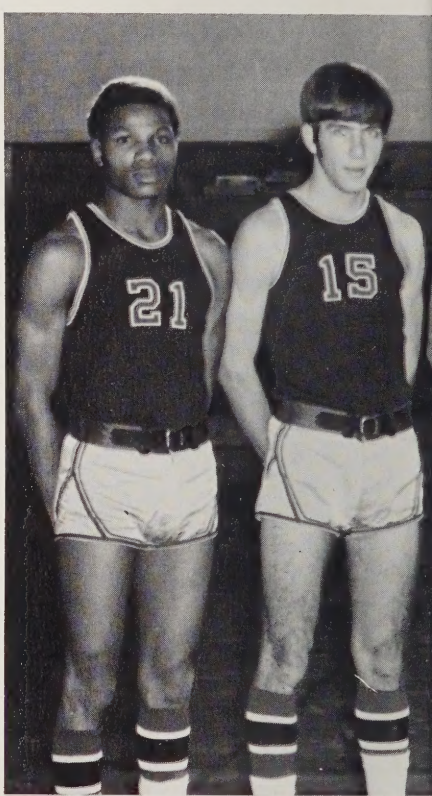
Basketball

Spartans

Central's mighty Spartans followed in their great tradition by displaying basketball at its finest this year. Led by a new varsity coach, Mr. Dan Hutchison, this year's Spartans showed great determination and skill as they provided more than enough competition for most of the teams in the league. The team displayed hustle, aggressiveness, and teamwork throughout the entire season. The Spartans were marked by inexperience since they had only three returning lettermen. These were Danny Smith, Rodney Grubb and Mike Mayhew. Mayhew was leading scorer for the team and was also tops in rebounding.

Although this year's team was great, next year's will be even better with three starters returning for the Spartans. These are Mike Mayhew, Mike Garner and David Hunt.



1. Mike Mayhew rips off another rebound for Central. 2. Mayhew shows his "cool" at the foul line. 3. David Hunt scores two as the referee looks on. 4. Danny Smith shoots over his opponent for a basket.

"Baby Spartans" set the pace

Tim Varner demonstrates jumping ability.

Blaine Tysinger shows concern on defense.

Central's "Baby Spartans" were a group of fine athletes. With their great hustling, team spirit, and desire, the boys will continue to do well. Here at Central they helped to establish a winning tradition.

Coach John Donati described them as a mature bunch of boys for Freshmen, and he expects things from them in the future.

Wrestlers vie for Conference

Team captains, Bobby Joe Young and Randy Davis are shown with coaches, Mr. Alexander and Mr. Hampton.

For the 69-70 Spartan wrestling team we had eight returning lettermen. This meant that four inexperienced boys have wrestled in the matches this year.

Leading the team were co-captains Randy Davis and Bobby Young. Also, lending a helping hand were Seniors Craig Stewart, Kenny Green, and David McCrary.

The team's coach, Jerry Hampton, led our boys with a previous record of 8-8. With the spirit that our boys radiated, our team wrestled better than last year.

"The Big Twelve" are the main wrestlers on the varsity squad. Two exhibitionists show us how it's done.

Central hurdles to victory in Spring sports

The Spartans' 1969 track team displayed their determined spirit and will to win as they fought hard in all their conference meets. Many of the boys were quite outstanding in their events and placed in the conference tournament. The three boys that went to the bi-conference to represent Central were Gerry Lookabill, Don Myers, and Samuel Pickett.

Track team: Alvin Everhart, Herbert Hedrick, Bill Huff, Gary Graves, Sonny Rider, Donnie Verdell, Randy Crotts, Freddie Miller, Don Myers, Willie Crawford, Bobby Joe Young, Danny Smith, Barry Weisner, Richard Hughes, Roger Thompson, Charlie Smith, Allen Byerly.

Kenny Greene races across the finish line.

Randy Crotts displays his jumping ability in the broad jump.

Don Myers leads all to finish first in the mile.

Jimmy Renas displays courage and determination as an outstanding track member.

Under last year's conference rules, six boys participated in each match and the best four scores out of six were taken. These four scores were added at the end of the match and the team with the lowest total placed the highest in the match.

Last year's golf matches and scores did not show the potential and capabilities of the boys on our team. We failed to place very highly in any of our matches, but we did manage to place second in Eastern Alamance.

To be eligible to attend the Association Tournament, which was held in Boone, North Carolina, at least a 90 must be shot. Central had one player, Chester George, who shot an 87 which resulted in his being eligible for the Association Tournament.

Golf team: Cecil Evans, Larry Younts, Andy Hedrick, Johnny Sink, James Lambeth, Edwin Allen, Chester Leverette, Timmy Varner, Jay McDaniel, David Trexler, Andy Myers; Mr. Scott: coach.

Our 1969 Spartan baseball team ended the season with a 500 mark by winning nine games and losing nine. Team spirit was high and the baseball team brought about their share of thrilling games and conference upsets. The most outstanding of these was a two-to-one victory over East Rowan, the top team in the conference. Outstanding players for the Spartan team were Rodney Grubb and Stevie Lambeth. These two young men had a very good year and provided much of the leadership necessary for the Spartans to have a winning team.

Mr. Allen Brown coached this impressive Spartan baseball team and helped them to win their 9-9 record.

Rodney Grubb winds up to throw his fast ball.

1. Cecil Evans drives one far down the fairway. 2. Andy Myers prepares to tee-off.

Baseball Team: Rodney Grubb, Pete Warfford, Mike Lambros, David Hunt, Ronnie Kiger, Danny Story, Anthony Hunt, Neal Woodall, Greg Younts, Ricky Leonard, David Curry, Sammy Davis, Scott Sink, Steve Hedrick, Rodney Owens, Chris Smith, Steve Leonard, Freddie Miller, Ricky Jarrell, Wayne Jonson, Larry Wilson, David Everhart, Carlton Ross, Nathan Varner, J.R. Doll, Steven Justice, Blaine Tysinger, Bobby Melton, Jackie Grubb, Terry Crotts, Eugene Crotts, Woody Harvey, Lewis Coppley, Alford Henderson, Kent Young, Jimmy Kepley, Kent Hedrick, Donnie Owens, Steve Houser, David Fritts, Chip Farnsworth, Mike Owens, Don Briggs, Benny Latham, Russell Cranford, Kermit Owens.

Nine Women Got Soul!

The Bod Squad!

That is all it is–just a piece of cloth. But when a little breeze comes along, it stirs and comes to life and flutters and snaps in the wind, all RED, AND WHITE, AND BLUE! And then you realize that no other piece of cloth could be like it!

It has your whole life wrapped up in it–the meals you eat; the time you spend with your family; the kind of things your boy and girl learn at school; the strange and wonderful thoughts you get in church on Sunday. Those stars in it–they make you feel just as free as the stars in the wide deep night. And those stripes–they are bars of blood to any dictator who would try to change this way of life.

Just a piece of cloth, that is all–until you put your soul into it, and give it meaning. Then it is a symbol of liberty, and decency, and fair-dealing for everyone. It is just a piece of cloth until we breathe life into it; until we make it stand for everything we believe in and refuse to live without it.

THE NEW DIMENSIONS

"Born free, as free as the wind blows, as free as the grass grows, born free to follow your heart. Live free, and beauty surrounds you, the world still astounds you, each time you look at a star. Stay free, where no walls divide you, you're free as a roaring tide so there's no need to hide. Born free, and life is worth living, but only worth living 'cause you're born free." A beautiful song isn't is? Not only is it poetic in rhythym,but the staff feels it has a beat that says something to today's youth and especially to the students at CHS. The sounds of freedom are familiar to everyone of us, but what are we doing to keep them ringing?

As editor, I would like to thank the staff, photographers, and most of all Mrs. Wetmore for their unapplauded time and efforts that went into this book. And it is their wish, as well as mine, that inside this yearbook the Class of '70 and all underclassmen may see that "life is worth living, but only worth living 'cause you're born free!"
